Reports of Officers

PRESIDENT

It is with pride that I briefly review the activities of the Winston-Salem Junior League for the year 1942-43. I leave the detailed reports of the officers and chairmen to show what has been accomplished in each phase of our program.

I should like, first of all, to express my sincere appreciation to each one of our sustaining members for the excellent work they have contributed to the League and to the community this year. Our board representatives were Miss Lois Efird, Mrs. Kenneth Mountcastle, and Mrs. Ralph Stockton. Mrs. Richard Spicer, Defense Chairman, served as placement chairman for the sustaining members primarily placing them as volunteers in work pertaining to the war. She was also the League representative on the Consumer and Salvage Boards. Mrs. James Early, Hospitality Chairman, has written letters to all the other Leagues extending our welcome to any of their members, relatives or friends who might be stationed in or near Winston-Salem. Mrs. Early has also called on those who have already arrived and has offered her services in helping them to get established.

Mrs. Irvin Carlyle, our Second Vice-President, has also served as Radio Chairman. The Junior League and the Council of Social Agencies invited Miss Gloria Chandler, of the A. J. L. A. staff, here to conduct a Radio Institute during the latter part of November. The course lasted three days and was attended by representatives from thirty-two organizations.

We had eight representatives on the four divisions of the Council of Social Agencies. Mrs. Fielding Combs was elected Chairman of the Family Child Welfare Division, and Mrs. Justus Randolph was Chairman of the Health Division.

Mrs. Justus Randolph has served as chairman of the Public Affairs Committee. This committee not only kept the League informed on legislative affairs but arranged for twelve other organizations to have presentations on the Morganton investigation and recommendation of the Study Commission.

After the resignation of the director of the Child Guidance Clinic, a special committee was appointed by the board to make an evaluation of the Clinic on the community. As a result of their meetings with lay and professional representatives of various welfare and educational agencies and consultation with our A. J. L. A. staff field worker, Mrs. Helene Lipscomb, the committee reported to the League at the October meeting that the Clinic had already completed a successful demonstration. The League then voted that: "Since the Clinic had been most successful as a demonstration that we continue our financial and moral support as long as needed—this need to be determined by a committee composed of members of the League and the Bowman Gray School of Medicine.

It was voted to discontinue our interest in the Gift Shop by a two-thirds majority vote of all the voting members of the League by a special ballot mailed to each member. The result was announced at the February meeting, and a committee was immediately appointed to handle the disposal of the shop. The board and the committee agreed at a called meeting to sell the shop to Miss Isabelle McPhail, the sale to become effective March 1st.

The Executive Committee appropriated $25 to the Winston-Salem Civic Welcoming Committee, to be spent on a party given for the newcomers with the Civil Service District Headquarters.

In November, the board voted to give $150 to help with the office supplies of the Women's Division of the War Savings Committee, of which Mrs. Irving Carlyle is the Regional Director and Mrs. Kenneth Mountcastle is the Co-Chairman of Winston-Salem.

The League voted in March to give $5,000 to the Family Service Agency to be used for establishing a special children's service, namely, the Child Placing Agency; $3,000 to the American Red Cross, and $1,000 to the Winston-Salem Teachers College for their library fund.

At the April meeting, the League appropriated $100 for the purpose of sending 2,000 packages of Camels to our over-seas fighting men.

I am deeply grateful to each member of my board and to each member of the League for her interest, cooperation and loyal support. It has been an honor and a pleasure to serve as your President.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY LOUISE RICE

President.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT

The Membership Committee met five times between April and September to consider candidates for provisional membership. Eleven names were submitted to the Board of Directors, and all were elected. The 1942 provisional members are as follows: Mrs. Agnew Bahnson, Jr., Miss Lelia Gray Creech, Miss Cornelia Garber, Miss Anne Hanes, Miss Lucretia Hill, Miss Jane Scott Matton, Miss Dorothy Myers, Mrs. Charles M. Norfleet, Jr., Mrs. Joe Simpson, Mrs. Jack Tate, and Mrs. Eugene Vogler, Jr.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY BELO CARLYLE

Chairman.

RECORDING SECRETARY

The Winston-Salem Junior League held eight regular meetings and one call meeting for the year April 1942 through April 1943.

The Board met for eight regular meetings and two call meetings. The Executive Committee held three meetings.

The minutes for each of these meetings have been read, approved and filed.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH McCORKLE.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

During the year 1942-43 ninety-three letters were written by the corresponding secretary. These included notes of appreciation, replies to inquiries, invitations, regular business, and letters necessary to the changes made in memberships. Thirty-six of these had to do with our second "Junior League Day." Some of these concerned the correspondence for ten non-resident memberships granted, the re-instatement of Mrs. W. A. Armfield to an active member, the transfer of Mrs. Frank Willingham to Wheeling, Mrs. Brant Snively to Lynchburg, Mrs. Lee Covington to Raleigh, Mrs. James Mann to Philadelphia, and Mrs. William Berger from Baltimore to Winston-Salem; the issuance of inter-League cards to Mrs. Graydon Pleasants and Mrs. Garnett Saunders; and the affiliation of Mrs. George Price, Mrs. Charles Nisbet, Jr., Mrs. Prioleau Ball, and Mrs. Alex Hanes, Jr., with our League.

The yearbook for 1942-43 was compiled, edited, and distributed.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY LOUISE LOWE

Corresponding Secretary.

Reports of Standing Committees

CULTURAL ARTS COMMITTEE

During the past year the Arts Committee has assisted in the continuance of the Community Art School program. In the spring of 1942, over fifteen hundred letters were sent out in a membership drive to raise sufficient funds:

- (1) Maintain the school through the following year.
- (2) Bring exhibitions of interest to the community.

In May an Impressionist Exhibition was lent to us by Knoedler's Galleries of New York, including works of Degas, Renoir, Cezanne, Toulouse-Lautrec, and others. In the fall of 1942 a Defense Poster Exhibition from the Museum of Modern Art was presented, including the original works of foremost contemporary artists. In both exhibitions an attendance record was kept and revealed an increasing interest among students. The League's interest was negligible.

A membership drive has not been held this spring, pending a decision by the School Board on the Arts Educational Program in the City High Schools.

Respectfully submitted,

JANE GRAY

(Mrs. Gordon Gray)

JUNIOR LEAGUE BEAUTY PARLOR, INCORPORATED

The net profit of the Junior League Beauty Parlor for the year ending April 1st, 1943, is $2,438.59. Due to present day difficulties there were many changes in personnel—our most pressing and recurring problem during the past year. There have been many replacements and additions in operators, bookkeepers and maids, and it was necessary to make four changes in the receptionists.

We expanded our services by introducing the Cold Ray permanent to the city, by adding the Parker Herbox treatment and by sending an operator to New York for further training. We extended our services to include operators at Roaring Gap in the summer months and were honored by a feature article about our shop in the largest national trade magazine, "Beauty Culture."

We have been able to maintain a high standard of operators during one of the most difficult years in the history of business. We shall continue to give you the best possible service and ask your loyal cooperation in these difficult times.

MAGAZINE AND SCRIBBLERS

During the year 1942-43 the Magazine has continued with its present format, though for the coming year, 1943-44, there may be a slight change in policy. The former editor, Mrs. Bradley Saunders, has turned over her duties to Mrs. James Dawson.

Our contributions to the Magazine this year have been varied but our acceptances have been few. The account and accompanying photograph of our one and only Wave, Aurelia Plumly, was given a prominent display, and we had an article about Lucy Fain's organization of the Volunteer Nurses Corps printed in the "A Job of Our Own" column. The Tidings column has carried the announcements of the engagements, weddings and births. A complete file of the Magazines has been kept for the year and is being turned over to the new Magazine Chairman, Mrs. H. B. McCorkle.

There have been no Scribblers Club meetings during the past year, and our allotment of $25, from the budget, has not been spent.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUISE SEELY BEARD

CHILD GUIDANCE CLINIC

The annual report for the Child Guidance Clinic from May, 1942, covers three important phases—first, the reorganization of the Clinic Board; second, the actual function of the clinic in the community; and third, the closing of the clinic.

During the spring of 1942 the need for a reorganization of the Clinic Board became urgent. We were fortunate in having the advice of Mrs. Helene Lipscombe during her Institute in March (covered in detail in the March, 1942, News Sheet). Dr. Milton E. Kirkpatrick, Director of the Division of Community Clinics of the National Committee for Mental Hygiene, came at our request and helped draw up a new constitution and set up the essential committees. Every precaution was taken to give the clinic, and therefore, the Junior League a proper functioning board for their project. Mr. W. K. Hoyt was elected President. Dr.

Wingate Johnson, Vice-President, Mrs. Graydon Pleasants, Secretary, and Mr. Charles E. Norfleet, Treasurer.

Turning our attention to the actual work at the clinic from April 1st, we see there was an increase in the case load. More people were coming as the result of referrals from patients who had been treated. Schools, Doctors and Social Agencies used the service more. Dr. James Watson, Director of the Division of Mental Hygiene of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare, referred treatment cases to the clinic. Duke Hospital and the Women's College in Greensboro referred cases. Numerically speaking, the clinic compared favorably with the case load of clinics in cities of twice the size of Winston-Salem.

At the date of the clinic closing, only $.50 was uncollected in fees during the entire existence of the clinic. In the last six months of operation the fee rate was lowered, which was indicative of the sound growth of the clinic showing that more social agencies were making use of the clinic.

Outside the clinic, both Dr. Rose and Miss Maxwell continued to work in the community on various committees, making addresses, etc.

The Clinic Board and the Junior League were unprepared for Dr. Rose's resignation as Director of the clinic on September 30, 1942.

The details of the closing of the clinic have been recorded; however, I shall outline the procedure that was followed: At the October Junior League meeting, Dr. Rose's resignation was announced. At the recommendation of the League a committee was appointed by the Executive Board to consider the resignation as it affected the clinic and to evaluate the clinic's place and services in the community program as a whole. The Junior League voted to continue its financial and moral support of the Child Guidance Clinic as long as needed. This need to be determined by a committee representing the Junior League, Child Guidance Clinic, and Bowman Gray School of Medicine.

On October 7th, the Junior League Committee including Mrs. Thomas Rice, Mrs. Fielding Combs, Mrs. Marcus Wilkinson, Mrs. Shelbourne Johnson, Mrs. Claude Glenn and Mrs. James DeHart met with all the Social Agency executives and the representatives of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, with Mr. Hoyt presiding.

It was unanimously agreed by the executives represented that the Child Guidance Clinic had made a successful demonstration and had shown the need for psychiatry in the community and state. To provide a permanent psychiatric service was the problem at hand. Dr. C. C. Carpenter stated the Medical School would make every effort to carry on the program indefinitely. A search for a competent psychiatrist was begun immediately following the October meeting. Dr. Kirkpatrick was again consulted but said that Winston-Salem, like most other cities, had lost clinic directors for highly specialized assignments with the Army and Navy, and to quote him (October 28th) "There are no directors available." Dr. Carpenter left no stones unturned looking for a successor. The last of November he announced to the Clinic Board that he was unable to find a suitable person to continue the work of the clinic, but that a staff member of the Medical School could carry on the program for the time being. The Clinic Board then voted that it would be most practical to close the Child Guidance Clinic December 15th, 1942. The Board has not liquidated but is ready at any time to work in the interest of furthering Child psychiatry in Winston-Salem.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The provisional course was given this year in cooperation with the Council of Social Agencies and was called "A Basic Training Course for Volunteers." Sixteen people, six of whom were Junior League provisionals, took the course, which was taught by Mr. Tom Carroll, executive secretary of the Community Chest. The group met for eight panel discussions, led by professional workers of the public and private welfare agencies, on the problems of our community and how we are meeting them. In addition, field trips were taken in order to observe the actual workings of the agencies. In a separate meeting of the Junior League Provisionals, Mrs. Robert McCuiston and Mrs. Tom Rice presented the history and work of the Winston-Salem League and of the national association. For the provisionals unable to take the regular course, Mr. Carroll gave two lectures and an oral examination.

As a community service in the field of education, a study course on current and postwar problems was sponsored by the committee, using the bulletins and reports of the Foreign Policy Association as source material, and Mr. Tom Holder, professor of history at Salem College as the teacher. Initiations were extended to the following groups:

The Junior Women's Club.

The head of the Salvation Army.

Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. and its staff.

Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

The Ministerial Association.

Parent-Teacher Association.

Head of the Family Service Agency.

St. Theresa's Guild.

Council of Jewish Women.

History Teachers of the Public Schools—white and colored.

Members of the History Department of the Winston-Salem Teachers College.

Through the newspapers, the public was invited to come—an average of fifty people attended the six sessions, twenty of whom were League members.

The schedule of lectures included the following:

Principles and Practices of Realistic Diplomacy.

Allied Governments in London.

Germany, the Problem Child of Europe.

Russia—Friend or Foe?

Postwar Reconstruction—the Transition to Peace.

Problems of World Federation.

During the year at League meetings, programs with the following speakers were presented:

Dr. Wingate Johnson, who spoke on the State's hospitals for the mentally ill.

Dr. C. C. Carpenter, who explained the necessity for closing the Child Guidance Clinic.

Mr. Theodore Johnson, head of the State Office of Price Administration, who discussed the relationship of Inflation, Rationing and Price Control.

In addition to these speakers, two talks were given by League members. Mrs. Irving Carlyle spoke of the necessity for buying War Bonds and Stamps, and Mrs. Richard Spicer explained Point Rationing.

Other programs included a skit on Christmas giving, written by Mary Garber and produced by the Play Group; a quiz program on community welfare agencies; and a showing of the film, "The Free American Way."

GIFT SHOP

The Junior League, at the February meeting, voted to discontinue its interest in the Gift Shop. A committee was appointed to dispose of the shop; the committee was composed of the following members, Mrs. John Seely, Mrs. Thomas Follin, Miss Jane Moore, Mrs. Thomas Rice, Mrs. Bowman Gray and myself.

We received two offers for the business. Liquidation was also considered. It was determined the price offered by Miss McPhail the best. At a called meeting of the board on the 22nd of February, it was voted to accept Miss McPhail's offer. The contract was signed, and on March 1st we received a check as payment in full for $4,528.10 from Miss McPhail.

The accounts receivable amounting to $1,909.29 were retained by us and have been collected down to $120.82.

Miss McPhail was given a year's salary, due to her loyalty and success.

NEWS SHEET

The News Sheet for 1942-43 was published in the form of a newspaper rather than a magazine as heretofore. It carried no advertising, being financed by funds from the budget.

The news staff has endeavored to record in the News Sheet all activities within the League itself, and community activities in which the League had some part. They have gone a step further in pointing out problems and situations in need of and worthy of League consideration.

There have been seven (7) issues of the News Sheet which have been bound for filing purposes.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH PIATT LEMLY

Since last October our community volunteer service has included the as follows:

For the Family Service Agency

A survey of leisure time and health of school children. This survey was made by Mrs. Justus Randolph, Mrs. H. B. McCorkle and Mrs. Claude Glenn. Several other people worked on the survey; these are the League people who helped compile it.

Interviewing of Ministers and Doctors regarding the need for a Child Placing Agency. The interviewing was done by Mary Garber, Mrs. Tom Holder, Mrs. Justus Randolph, Mrs. Ben Trotter and Mrs. Carlisle Bethel.

A Standardized Budget of Nutrition was worked out for the Agency which included a study of food prices, nutrition value, etc. Mrs. H. B. McCorkle, Mrs. Forrest Wright and Mrs. Justus Randolph worked on this project.

Since March 15th the agency has used four of our members as receptionists in the office; they are Mrs. Phil Bolich, Mrs. Archie Davis, Mrs. M. E. Miller and Mrs. James Glenn. These same people will be receptionists at the new Day Nursery temporarily until new people can be trained for the Nursery.

Due to the confidential nature of the Family Service Agency they have never used volunteers in the office prior to this time. Miss Gambrell has praised these people highly for their prompt efficient attendance to their work and says they have been of inestimable help to an overworked staff.

Y. W. C. A.: Our members are serving on all committees of the Y. These include Camp Committees, Industrial Girls, Girl Reserves, Resource Committee and House Committee. We have six Girl Reserve Club Advisors. This work requires a meeting with the group once a week and preparation beforehand to plan the program as well as the general meetings during the month.

Mrs. John Hunter has been Receptionist at the Y.

One of our sustaining members made a beautiful banner for the Girl Reserve Recognition Service (Mrs. John Eller).

TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATION: A number of people sold Seals.

Mrs. Bailey Liipfert typed all the envelopes for the Association.

HOSPITAL MOBILE LIBRARY:

COUNTY-CLINIC: Five members have worked at the County Clinics until recently—three members at the Out-Patient Clinics.

MATERNAL HEALTH CLINIC: Mrs. James DeHart has been assisting Mrs. Alfred Smith.

CHRISTMAS CHEER, INC.: Miss Diana Dyer is chairman.

TOY SHOP: Mrs. Tom Moore was General Chairman. This was a big job done exceptionally well: A league member was Chairman of Collections, and approximately 20 members helped sort, bundle and repair.

Mrs. Charles Babcock made the window posters, and League members helped the Girl Reserves make posters used in the stores, others served on committees such as publicity, radio, etc.

WAR FUND DRIVE: A large number of members solicited for the Community War Fund, some were on the organization committee and others were team leaders.

DEFENSE

Eighty people have had defense courses such as nutrition, First Aid, Advanced First Aid, home nursing, motor corps, etc.

BLOCK LEADERS: Citizens' Service Corps. We have nine active members who are block leaders. Mrs. R. A. Spaugh is a Sector Leader.

CITIZENS MESSENGER CORPS: This included organizing children as messengers under the Citizens Service Corps: Diana Dyer is Chairman.

The Placement Chairman was worked closely with the Chairman of Civilian Defense Office and supplied volunteers for the following:

Clerical work and interviewing for Office of Civilian Defense.

Registration of Trucks for County Gas Rationing.

Registration of 18-year-olds for the Draft Board.

Filing at Rationing Office.

Army Recruiting Office—typists and receptionists.

U. S. O. Lounge—six members during the day and eight professional members give three hours a week at night and four hours on Sunday afternoon.

Share your Car Pool.

Assistance in setting up Block Plan.

WAR BONDS AND STAMPS: Mrs. Irving Carlisle, Chairman of the Women's Division; approximately forty members including professionals helped man the booths during the drive in December.

RED CROSS

WORK ROOMS AND SURGICAL DRESSINGS: Mrs. Tom Follin and Mrs. Judge Ruffin (until recently) are supervisors of Surgical Dressings. Cornelia Garber is Superintendent of Packing and works three mornings a week for three and one-half hours. The Rationing Board has asked us to supply volunteers to check merchants on ceiling prices—this work has just begun.

All of this work has been carried on in addition to league enterprises, such as the gift shop, Thrift shop, publicity, news sheet, etc., etc. The Telephone Committee, a thankless task, has put in many hours at the phone.

We have been busy, but there is still work and more work to be done. Time doesn't belong to the individual anymore—if we shirk our community responsibility the burden falls on the

MRS. CLAUDE GLENN

PLAY GROUP

The Junior League Play Group, for the first time in 15 years, was unable to produce its annual spring play due to gas rationing and other war-time obstacles.

However—following Gloria Chandler's advice, we branched into a new field of play activity by cooperating with an outside organization, the Gray High School Dramateers, in producing "Rackety Packety House."

The work was done by the scenery committee and members of the Property Committee assisted by some of our actors. Under the capable direction of Mrs. Charles Babcock, a group of girls made the sets, painted doors and windows, and collected furniture.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH BROOKS PULLEN.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

The Publicity Committee submits this report of its activities for the year 1942-43:

1. In September the Committee met with representatives of our two daily newspapers. This meeting was deemed necessary in order for the committee to obtain an understanding of the policies of these newspapers in handling League information and news. Also, to interpret the League's publicity policies.
2. All regular meetings of the League were reported in the daily papers.
3. All material for publication sent out by the A. J. L. A. was given excellent placing and space by our daily papers.
4. News articles explaining the League's reasons for the closing of the Child Guidance Clinic and the Junior League Gift Shop were used.
5. The committee prepared a 600-word advertisement setting forth some past and future procedures as to money raising. This appeared in the March 1 edition of the Sentinel and the March 2 edition of the Journal. Included in this advertisement were the total expenditures for the Hospital for Incurables and the Child Guidance Clinic.

The Committee has received invaluable help from members of the staff of each of our daily papers. The managing editors have been most generous in the space allotted to us. For all of this the committee is most grateful.

Respectfully submitted,

DORRIS CANNON WILKINSON

THRIFT SHOP

March 31, 1943, ended a very successful year for the Thrift Shop, and one that should prove the Shop's community worth.

Our daily sales and profits have steadily increased these last five years, and it is interesting to note that this year's net profit of $1,776.83 was realized almost entirely from League members' quota, as we did not solicit rummage, nor did we sponsor a Rag Tea or Fashion Show.

Our customers are far more numerous, many of them more able to buy—yet there are others still in real need—therefore, from a welfare standpoint, we have clothed many who could not afford to trade elsewhere. Much credit is due our new manager, Mrs. A. C. Perry, who understands their varied problems and has stimulated interest in the Shop both among customers and League members.

As for war needs, we feel that we have contributed materially—by our proportionate part in the League's gifts—to the Red Cross Drive, Cigarettes for Soldiers, The Family Service Agency and The Negro Library Fund.

HOSPITALITY COMMITTEE

The year 1942-43 was a quiet one for the hospitality committee. We held our second annual Junior League Day in May at Reynolda. After the meeting a box lunch was served at the lake, and bingo was played for defense stamps. In October the Board of Directors gave a tea for the new provisional members. The approximate cost of our entertaining this year was $7.00.

I would like to thank all of those who have helped us during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH C. GRAY.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

At the March meeting the following slate for the 1943-44 term of office was presented by the Nominating Committee: President, Mrs. Irving Carlyle; Vice-President, Mrs. Bowman Gray; Recording Secretary, Miss Diana Dyer; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Julian Lowe; Treasurer, Mrs. Willoughby Brown.

The slate was accepted unanimously in the form of a vote by the League.

At the April meeting the following delegates were elected to attend the A. J. L. A. Conference in New York City: Mrs. Irving Carlyle and Mrs. John Whitaker, with Mrs. Fielding Combs and Mrs. Bowman Gray as alternates.

A list of twenty names was presented at the April meeting from which the Secret Admissions Committee was elected.

MARY LOUISE LOWE,

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE

This year for the first time, the Winston-Salem Junior League concerned itself with State Legislation. After Dr. Wingate Johnson's presentation at the November meeting of the study and recommendations of the Morganton Mental Hospital, the League decided to actively participate in getting the recommendations passed by the N. C. General Assembly. Although no petition from the League as an organization was sent to Raleigh, about 18 members wrote or wired the Chairmen and individual members of the Assembly's Appropriation Committee. Later they communicated with Representatives from the district. The Legislative Committee followed the career of the Morganton Bill through the Legislature in order to inform League members when to write to whom.

As an educational job, the Legislative Committee provided means for 12 organizations having the study and recommendations presented to their memberships; Doctors Johnson, Elbert McMillan, and James Watson from Raleigh were booked for speaking engagements for about half of these organizations; in other instances, members presented the material to their own organizations after a teaching session with Dr. Johnson.

The Legislative Committee also studied and followed School Legislation; it attempted to interest League members in the State-financed ninth month, and in an increase in teachers' salaries through a War Bonus. At strategic moments, key and lukewarm legislators were written or wired. Quite a few members gave the Committee five cents and the authority to combine their names on telegrams to any Legislator at any time.

Respectfully submitted,

REBY RANDOLPH

RADIO COMMITTEE

On November 23, 24 and 25 the Junior League, in conjunction with the Council of Social Agencies, sponsored a Radio Institute conducted by Miss Gloria Chandler, of the A. J. L. A. staff, Community Service Department. All League members were invited to attend the six sessions, and special letters were sent to all persons registered at the CVDO who had expressed an interest at the time of registration in radio. In addition, invitations were mailed to all established community groups and agencies, including wartime committees, who either were already employing the radio medium or who might perhaps wish to do so.

The average attendance was thirty, and a total of thirty-three agencies were represented among those who attended at one or more sessions, which we believed was a most gratifying response although the number of League members who attended was relatively small.

On January 20, a call meeting was held of all those who had attended the Institute for the purpose of discussing the formation of a local Radio Council. Approximately fifty people came to this meeting. A motion was made and passed to form such a group, and a steering committee was elected to formulate plans for organization.

Three weeks later another meeting was called, at which time a constitution and a nominating committee reported. The personnel of these committees had been named by the steering committee.

Two Junior League members were named on the proposed Executive Board, the other seven members of the Board coming from the city at large.

Under consideration at this time is the employment of a paid technical director whose function would be the coordinating of the existing interest in radio and the training of interested volunteers, casting, and production of local programs.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY BELO CARLYLE,
Chairman.

STANDING RULES

1. Administrative

A. Meetings

A meeting of the Junior League of Winston-Salem shall be held on the first Tuesday of the following months: April, November, December, January, February and March. The annual meeting shall be held in May, the date to be determined each year by the Board of Directors. The October meeting shall be held on the second Tuesday of that month. No notice shall be given except through the newspaper.

B. Expenses of Delegates

The full expenses of delegates to conferences and the Annual Meeting of the Association shall be paid by the League.

C. Thrift Shop Quota

Any Junior League member, other than Non-Resident members, shall be required to pay annually on April 1 in cash to the Thrift Shop any amount not otherwise contributed in rummage to complete her Thrift Shop quota.

2. Departmental

A. Membership Committee

This shall be a secret committee.

The Membership Chairman shall be responsible for counting the ballots for membership committee and calling all meetings.

No member may serve on the Membership Committee for more than two years in succession. In case a member has served for two successive years and is again elected, the Membership Chairman shall call upon the person receiving the next highest vote to serve instead. In case of a tie, the six members and the Membership Chairman shall have the power to determine by a majority vote the seventh member of the committee.

Relatives (mothers, sisters, sisters-in-law, first cousins) of candidates for provisional membership may not serve on the Membership Committee. If such a person is elected, she shall be replaced by the person receiving the next highest number of votes.

The Membership Committee shall acquaint themselves concerning the individual candidates and shall be responsible for finding out their qualifications. After thorough discussion, a vote by secret ballot shall be taken. Five affirmative votes of the Membership Committee are necessary for election by this Committee.

At the October meeting of the Board of Directors, held one week at least before the regular meeting, the Membership Chairman shall submit the list of candidates elected by the Membership Committee. The Board shall vote by secret ballot on the list. To be elected to Provisional membership a candidate must receive a three-fourths majority vote of the Board of Directors. Invitations shall be mailed immediately to those elected, and the names of those who accept shall be announced by the Membership Chairman at the October meeting.

B. Provisional Training Course

Punctual attendance by the Provisional members upon all lectures planned for the Training Course is compulsory.

A written notice of the dates and hour for all lectures must accompany each letter of invitation to provisional members. No further notice need be given unless there is a change of date or hour for any lecture.

All explanations for absence from any lecture must be sent in writing to the Board of Directors. If an excused absence is granted by the Board the actual time of the lecture not attended must be made up and notes of lectures not attended must be secured for study. If the absence is not excused, the entire course and examination must be taken over the following year.

The Board of Directors shall pass upon the record of each Provisional member and shall determine whether or not said Provisional has satisfactorily performed the requirements laid down by it.

C. Duties of Committee Chairmen

It shall be the duty of each committee chairman to create and/or maintain a manual for her committee which outlines the methods and procedures by which the committee fulfills the function and duties assigned to it by the By-Laws or by the motion or executive order which creates the committee. Such methods and procedures are subject to change, at the discretion of the committee, provided they do not conflict with the By-Laws, or with any Standing Rules adopted by the League or the Board of Directors.
